F. McCuen, who was so terribly injured while attempting to jump from a moving train on the electric railway at the corner of King and Columbus streets yesterday afternoon, died at the Infirmary at eight o'clock last night. His left arm had been crushed to a pulp and his head terribly cut. After having been picked up and taken to the Infirmary Dr. Smith was hastily sum moned, and he saw that there was but a slight chance for recovery. Dr. Smith summoned Drs. Purvis and Klipstein, and, after holding a consultation, they amputated the left arm and bandaged amputated the left arm and bacdaged up his head. The injured man never rallied, and, as stated above, his death occurred at 8 o'clock. Mr. McCuen was about 46 years of age, and is surwas about 46 years of age, and is survived by a widow and one child of the second marriage and Mrs. Robert Schneider of the first marriage. He lived with his wife and child at 421 north Columbus street. Mr. McCuen conducted a grocery and liquor store on the Washington road, in Alexandria county, this side of Four Mile Run. It is said that the unfortunate man was carrying a bucket of paint in his hand at the time of the accident and not a jug, as first stated.

THE WEATHER last night and today has been exceedingly disagreeable. A Evans, warm southeast wind has prevailed and the least exertion on the part of humanity has produced perspiration. The atmosphere has been moist and penetrating and calculated to superinduce colds. The river has been kept surging all day by the wind, and vessels bound up have made steamboat time. The skies have been threatening and indications point to a decided change in the weather before morning in the shape of northwest winds and much colder weather. The Norfolk steamer encountered a snow squall be-tween Blackistone's Island and Colonial Beach about two o'clock this morning.

SUNDAY ECHOOL OFFICERS ELECTED. The session of the Second Presbyterian Church have elected Mr. W. H. Melcholr superintendent and Mr. Frank L. Sisymaker assistant superintendent of the morning Sunday school, and Mr. P. J. Demsey superintendent and Mr. Frank L. Sisymaker assistant superintendent of the afternoon Sunday school.

Gazette. It seems that the deceased lived in a house with another colored individual whose name could not be learned, and he had started for the Mayor's office for the purpose of applying for a portion of the produce dispensed to the poor. When his partner in housekeeping heard of Balley's death he proceeded to the station house and asked Chief Webster to turn over to him the dead man's portion of the city's charity. The chief told the darkey that Bailey had not been there, but the that Bailey had not been there, but the negro insisted that as he had lived in the house with him it would be proper to turn the produce over to him. The chief ficulty made the darkey understand that nothing had been given Bailey and was becoming impatient Bailey and was becoming impatient and the produce of the property of the property asked what would be bim. The curve was becoming impatient when the negro asked what would be the best hour for him to go to the station house and make formal application for himself. The chief told him lift was for himself. The chief told him lift was had better start about nine for himself. The chief told him lift was had been employed in the barber shop of Herbert Tancil, died at an early hour of Herbert Tancil, died at foggy he had better start about nine o'clock in the morning, as he under-stood the fog had killed Bailey at that hour and it might kill him, so the city would then be rid of both.

WORK COMPLETED .- The work of repaying King street from Union to Eairfax is virtually completed, and the work is justly admired by all. The preparations for extending the work south on Fairfax street to Printer's alley are progressing and in a few days' time, provided the weather proves propitious, that also will have been com-pleted. City Engineer Dunn has given the King street work his closest atten-tion, and he is receiving many con-gratulations for the practical and near manner in which the paving has been proceeded. Messrs. Cavillier and Wesdon, the contractors, are also being congratulated on the work.

LIBRARY.-The following books have been added to the library: The Cava-lier, George W. Cable; Kim, Radyard Kip iog; The Benefactress, same author as Elizabeth and her German Garden; The Puppet Crown, Harold Macgrath; Highways and Byways in the Lake District, Arthur G. Bradly; The Man his city.

> PETITION FOR DIVORCE. - John L. Reh has brought suit in Washington for divorce from Eila M. Reb. The parties were married in this city September 29, 1897, and Mr. Reb charges that shortly after the marriage his wife developed a fondness for liquor, and her subsequent conduct was such that he is in constant apprehension of bodily harm. The petitioner says: "In September, 1900, while we were residing at Rockville, Md., the defendant attempted to kill me with a rszor, and during the next month she again assaulted me with a water pitcher."

OFFICIAL VISIT.—Rev. E.E. North ero, Grand Master of the Old Fellows' of Virginia, last night paid a fraternal visit to Sarepta and Potomac Lodges. of this city and Falls Caurch Lodge.
The three lodges met in joint session for the occasion in Old Fellows' Hali on north Columbus street. A very pleasant evening was spent by all present, and after the meeting a handsome barquet was served.

POLICE COURT,-There was no seesion of the Police Court this morning A colored woman named Sophia Tolson, who escaped from the work house some time ago, had been recaptured. The Mayor had ordered her to be returned to that institution. Moses Evans, the negro who assaulted Emanuel Corbin, will probably be tried

The Market this morning, as was the case last Saturday, presented no new features. The supply of country produce had not increased, nor had the demand. Prices still held their Brandy [ mandy ] [ m own, and there were no indications of weakening in the near future. There was an abundance of rabbits on sale.
